Claims 1-27 are presented for examination.

The response to the restriction requirement of August 18, 2009 has been received and entered.

Applicant's arguments regarding the restriction requirement are deemed to be persuasive, and such requirement is hereby withdrawn.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-27 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-89 of U.S. Patent No. 7,189,865.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they overlap. The claims of the instant application are drawn to a composition of a tetraalkylammonium tetrathiomolybdate compound individually or in combination with a secondary component. The claims of the U.S. Patent are drawn to specific tetraalkylammonium tetrathiomolybdate individually or in combination with the same secondary ingredients as claimed herein. The claims of the US Patent are within scope of the claims of the instant application, considering that they encompass the compounds and the composition as claimed herein.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-8 and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Seiver et al. (US 4,430,443) in view of WO 00/13712.

Seiver et al. teach the use of the claimed compounds, tetraalkylammonium tetrathiomolybdate as old and being used in a composition. See column 5, lines 17-67, column 7, lines 10-20 and claims 11-20. The above reference differs from the claimed invention in the use of the secondary components and different routes of administration, in the form of pills, capsules, injection. The WO Patent teaches the use of different pharmaceutical acceptable forms and route of administration for compounds having tetrathiomolybdate as old and well known. WO Patent also teaches the addition of secondary components to the compounds having tetrathiomolybdate. See page 4, lines 22-30, claims 35, 44 and 45. It would have been obvious to a person skilled in the art to use Seiver et al. composition by oral or injection administration, motivated by WO Patent, which teaches the compositions having tetrathiomolybdate for pharmaceutical use in pharmaceutical acceptable formulations. The addition of secondary active ingredients is also taught by the WO Patent.
